

in the City. The history of the establishment dates back half a century ago, when it was founded by the

with a very extensive assortment of high-class goods for which the house

